

ACB-1000

The ACB-1000 RF COMBINER is for combining two inputs to one 50 ohm output. The ACB-1000 can be used with the Ameritron ASP-200 to connect two equal output amplifiers like the Ameritron ALS-500Ms together. This will allow double the output compared to a single amplifier.

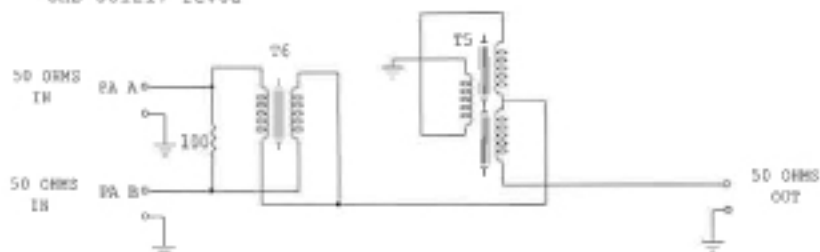

The ACB-1000 has three RF SO-239 connectors. Two for input labeled AMP OUT 1 AND AMP OUT 2. The other connector is a 50 ohm output for connecting to the antenna labeled Antenna.

The ACB-1000 can handle 1500 watts PEP or 1000 watts continuous.
Dimensions: 6"W (15.24 cm) x 5"D (12.7 cm) x 3"H (7.62 cm)
Weight: 1.4 lbs (.635 kg)

Attention:

Do not connect two amplifiers with different power levels. This could cause damage to ACB-1000 and amplifiers.

While using this device always monitor amplifier's output for any changes that may occur. Check the output of each amplifier if the output changes.
